The shocking images of police undressing a burkini-clad Muslim woman on Nice beach will fuel support for Isis

The sight of four armed men forcing a woman to remove her clothes in public propagates the extremist narrative that the West is at war with Islam. It is dangerous and smacks of thoroughly illiberal hysteria

Headgear worn by Muslim women

BURQA

- ▶ Full veil traditionally worn by Pashtuns in Afghanistan
- ▶ Covers the head and the body and has a grill which hides the eyes
- ▶ Enforced by the Talibans fighting US forces in Afghanistan

NIQAB

- ▶ A veil that entirely covers a person, including the mouth and the nose
- ▶ It has a small opening for the eyes
- ▶ It's use is widespread through the influence Wahabi Islam, especially in urban environments

HIJAB

- ▶ A Hijab is a headscarf, not a veil.
- ▶ Hides the hair, ears and neck
Only the oval shape of the face is visible
- ▶ Widespread use in the Muslim world. Championed by the Muslim Brotherhood

CHADOR

- ▶ Traditional garment worn by women in Iran and Afghanistan
- ▶ Full cloak that covers the body and the hair, open at the front
- ▶ Not obligatory in Islamic countries, unlike the veil.

KHIMAR
Covers head, neck and shoulders

BURQA
Covers entire body including the face

NIQAB

- What makes us react to clothing and how people are dressed?
- Who in your family established the “dress code”?
- Who/what establishes dress codes at work or school?
- What determines the acceptability of clothing?
- What purpose does clothing actually serve in the world?
- Do economic conditions affect acceptability of clothing?
