

Purpose:

The purpose of this activity is to learn about cultural assumptions and differences based on knowing a little information about a person you've just met.

Directions:

The following questions will ask you to make assumptions and generalizations based on your partner. After you're done filling out the sheet, you will be asked to share your assumptions about your partner with your partner.

Part A: Basic Information

Please ask your partner to tell you the following information

Partner's Name:

Partner's Age:

Partner's Home Country and State or Province:

Partner's Major:

[DO NOT LOOK AT THE BACK SIDE OF THIS PAPER UNTIL INSTRUCTED TO DO SO]

Part B: Assumptions

Please answer the following questions about your partner based on your best guess.

My partner's favorite local restaurant is:

My partner's favorite type of music is:

My partner's favorite type of film or movie is:

My partner's favorite color is:

My partner's favorite thing to do for fun is:

My partner likes to read for fun: YES or NO

My partner likes to eat _____ for breakfast.

My partner has traveled internationally _____ times.

My partner knows _____ languages.

My partner is a: Morning person or Night person

My partner is a: Dog Lover or Cat Lover or Neither

My partner's dream job is to be a _____.

Circle One:

My partner prefers direct or indirect communication (e.g. saying what they mean versus beating around the bush).

My partner prefers to speak out in a meeting or let everyone take their turn.

My partner prefers to be emotionally expressive or emotionally restrained during disagreements with others.

My partner prefers to work individually or work in a group.

My partner prefers to be a follower or a leader.