

Instructions

- Ask students to sit in pairs across the table from each other. The further apart the pairs can sit from other pairs the better.
- One member of each pair will remain in their chosen seat for the entire activity. The other will rotate to the next chair each round.
- The students in the stationary positions will receive either question list 1 or 2. The students in the rotating positions will receive either question list 3 or 4.
- Students will alternate asking and answering questions. You may choose to have them answer their own question after their partner has answered.
- The round will end after a designated time, and the rotating team will move to the next spot. The time allotted per round can be as short or as long as you like.
