

Sudha: This sucks – just got quarantined! I can't get samples. Can someone cover?

Ahmed: #quarantinesucks! Same deal with me. Maybe we had the same contact. Wang, what's the plan?

Wang: If we split the work, Emma and I can get 4 samples each.

Emma: I've got 2 exams and a paper due next week. Let's tell Gina what's up and see if we can go with fewer samples or get an extension.

Ahmed: You mean Dr. Pierre? She said at least 8 samples. And I hear she doesn't like extensions.

Emma: Gina, Dr. Pierre, whatever. She seems chill.

Sudha: What if Ahmed and I email her separately to explain we're quarantined, then Emma or Wang, one of you ask her what to do? And yeah, this sucks for us all.

Wang: I don't like asking professors for favors, but we all want a good grade. We'll go with Sudha's idea. Contact Dr. Pierre tonight, and I'll email her tomorrow morning. Don't get sick, everyone!
